

Eurostoves Cooking Class General Policies

For participation in classes, we recommend appropriate attire and closed-toe shoes. Gratuity is not included but is appreciated. Please notify us at the time of booking if you have any food allergies or dietary constraints. Prompt arrival is appreciated.

Payment and Refund Policies

To register for any class, advance payment in full is required. Two weeks withdrawal notice is required for a cash refund. When a customer cancels their reservation 3-13 days prior to the class date, only class credit will be issued. There are no refunds or class credit issued when less than 48 hours' notice from the class start date is given. It is suggested that you get someone to come in your place if you can't make it. Gift certificates are not refundable but may be transferred to another person.

Cancellation Policies

Eurostoves reserves the right to cancel any class that fails to attract sufficient enrollment. In case of cancellation, All customers will be notified and a full refund will be offered or class credit for a future class. In the event of inclement weather, you will be notified as soon as the class is cancelled and a full refund will be offered or class credit for a future class. If the class is held, no refunds will be issued due to the weather.

We reserve the right to cancel or modify classes and menus. Due to the availability of ingredients, recipes may need to be substituted for a class. If time constraints occur, not every recipe scheduled will be prepared.

Alcoholic Beverage Policy

Alcoholic beverages are available for purchase and consumption on the premise during classes. Class participants may be asked to present identification to prove that they are of legal Massachusetts State drinking age and will be held responsible for limiting their consumption of alcohol to safe amounts. PREGNANT WOMEN, PEOPLE WHO WILL BE DRIVING AND PEOPLE ON CERTAIN MEDICATION SHOULD NOT CONSUME ALCOHOL. State laws/rules do not allow patrons to take home wine purchased with a meal.
